

NEW YORK IS TO SEE UNCLE SAM'S GREATEST WAR FLEET; 24 BATTLESHIPS WITH 400 GUNS AND 36 OTHER FIGHTERS

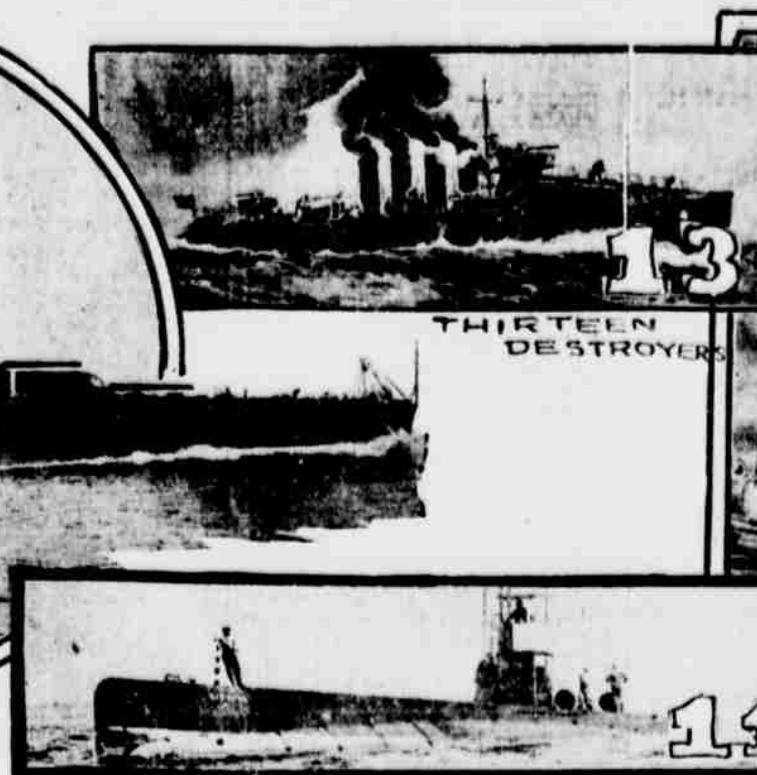

NINE TORPEDO BOATS

TWO ARMORED CRUISERS

TWENTY FOUR BATTLESHIPS

ELEVEN SUBMARINES

ONE SCOUT CRUISER

On Nov. 1 the Atlantic Fleet is to mobilize in the waters around this city. Never before have American citizens had the chance to see such a fleet as will gather here then. It will be made up of the biggest and the swiftest ships in the United States Navy. It will be bigger than any American fleet which ever gathered here or anywhere else. The famous battleship fleet which President Roosevelt sent around the world to prove he could do it was a more show than to this coming demonstration.

Out of thirty-one battleships which will then be completed and in the possession of the United States, all but seven will be part of the big fleet. The only battleships missing will be the Alabama, the Kentucky, the Kentucky and those honored relics of the Spanish American war, the Oregon, Indiana, Massachusetts and Iowa.

This fleet of battleships will mount just 400 big guns, manned by about 17,000 officers and men. In fifteen minutes' firing it could wipe New York city off the map and make wide gaps in Hudson County, N. J.

The battleships of the big fleet will be the Connecticut, 24 guns; Delaware, 21; North Dakota, 24; Michigan, 8; Vermont, 24; Kansas, 24; Louisiana, 24; South Carolina, 8; New Hampshire, 24; Missouri, 24; Minnesota, 24; Iowa, 24; Mississippi, 8; Maine, 24; Virginia, 24; Georgia, 24; Nebraska, 24; Rhode Island, 24; Ohio, 24; Illinois, 24; Wisconsin, 24; New Jersey, 24, and right out in front the newest giant super-dreadnoughts, the Utah, 28, and Florida, 28.

This grim array of sea bulwarks will be backed up with two of the most armored cruisers, the North Carolina and Washington, mounting forty guns together, and the scout cruiser Salem, one of three of her class, with only two guns. The United States has thirty other cruisers of other classes. They are scattered all over the world on station and patrol duty. Many of them are in the Philippines.

A fleet of thirteen of the thirty-four torpedo boat destroyers which Uncle Sam owns will be here to ward off swift night attacks by small craft.

Nine out of his thirty-two torpedo boats will be along for aggressive maneuvers. The United States has eighteen submarines. Eleven of the eighteen—the Vindicator, Tarantula, Tiger, Grayhound, Bonaparte, Narwhal, Salmon, Snapper, Stingray, Tarpon and Octopus—will be participating along under cover of the big ships.

As auxiliaries will be the Mayflower, bearing the President of the United States; the Dolphin, flying the flag of the Secretary of the Navy; and the Panther, the tender Patagonia and the supply ships Cella and Colgo, the Tuxton, and the Hospital ship Solace.

$10,000 IN BAIL FOR THREE ACCUSED OF WHITE SLAVERY

Morris and Lena Cohen and Jennie Lauretta Held in United States Court.

Morris and Lena Cohen of No. 208 Forsyth street and Jennie Lauretta of No. 20 Commerce street, Hartford, Conn., accused of engaging in the white slave traffic, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields today. They were held in $10,000 bail for examination to-morrow afternoon.

In the arrest of the Cohens George C. Craft and John Figue of the Department of Justice, who have charge of the case, say they have secured the heads of the white slave industry of this city, and that if the man and wife are convicted it will tend to put an end to this traffic. Cohen is sixty-five years old and gives his business as a truckman. He is crippled with rheumatism.

United States Assistant District Attorney Walton spent the greater part of today with the agents of the Department of Justice and the girl said to have been imported to Hartford last Thursday by the Cohens and consigned to the Lauretta woman. The girl gives her name as Ruth Cohen, and is said to reside on Elmwood street. She has made a confession showing how she was given railroad fare by the Cohens to Hartford and sent direct to the Lauretta woman.

In addition to Miss Cohen, Federal Agents Scully and Baker today brought from Hartford four other girls, who said they had been sent to immoral houses in that city by Cohen. One found at No. 100 Commerce street gives her name as Mollie Grace, but refuses to tell where she lives.

Ida Rosenthal, another of the girls, says she lives at No. 408 East One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, and declares that Cohen secured her a home in Hartford.

"I have known Cohen for several years and knew he was sending girls out of the city," she said to an Evening World reporter. "I wanted to get away from New York and he told me where I could go in Hartford. He told me to tell the woman I had been sent by him, and I did."

The Federal agents say that they will produce many more girls from Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport, who were sent by the Cohens. Ruth Cohen, who is twenty years old and attractive, claims she didn't know for what purpose she was sent to Hartford.

The agents assert that the Cohens have been engaged in this traffic for years and have sent over 30 girls to different places in the country. They consider this the most important case they have had since the crusade commenced three years ago.

It was learned today that women agents of the Department of Justice are at work in several of the mill towns of New England gathering evidence, and the arrest of the Cohens is but the forerunner of many sensational cases. Evidence is said to have been secured showing that representatives of white slave promoters are actively engaged in campaigns at the present time.

Pastor Favors Divorce for Every Couple When Their Love Has Fled

Marriage in Such Cases a Predicament, Not a Sacrament, Says Rev. Mr. Scudder—Should Be Given Another Chance.

Better for Children That "Homes of Hate" Be Broken Up—Would Make Divorce Possible on at Least 8 Grounds.

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

"Marriage is frequently not a sacrament but a predicament. Divorce should always be encouraged when it adds to the sum total of human happiness. Second marriages are frequently happier than first ones."

After the recent war over the marriage of Col. Asor these ministerial rulings possess at least the charm of novelty. They were put forward by the Rev. Dr. John L. Scudder of the First Congregational Church of Jersey City.

Dr. Scudder has the courage of his convictions, for he very recently presided at the marriage of Mrs. Bertha B. Ellsworth and Harry C. Ellsworth, both of whom were divorced. He married W. L. D. Stokes to his present wife, and has officiated at the remarriage of many divorced persons. He is a Yale graduate, and a clergyman particularly successful in social and benevolent work.

"Please make it quite clear," he stipulated, while I was still recovering from my surprise at his frankness, "that I am not running a matrimonial bureau for divorcees. I never marry them nor anyone else unless I know the individual circumstances of the case. I need not say that I am unalterably opposed to free love or polygamy in any form, legal or otherwise."

MARRIAGE SHOULD BE FOR FUTURE, NOT FOR PAST.

But I believe that there can be but one real marriage for each person, a union based on the truest, deepest, biggest love. The divorced man or woman has obviously not succeeded in attaining this marriage. If later the possibility of such happiness is made visible to these unfortunate people, I should feel a criminal in not doing all in my power to make the vision true. In short, my motto is to marry anyone, divorced or not, if an continued the marriage will be happy. It is the future, not the past, that counts."

"Then you do not accept the view of many churchmen that marriage is a sacrament and cannot be dissolved?" I suggested.

"Most marriages are made by God, but some are made by the devil," declared Dr. Scudder.

"Two persons feel a transient physical attraction after the slightest acquaintance and marry. Another couple accept a wager and marry to win it. A young girl is given in marriage by an ambitious mother to a man old enough to be her father. Do you see anything sacred or holy about such unions, even though they are effected in the shadow of the church?"

"I believe with all my heart that the real marriage is infinitely sacred and holy. My own marriage is such, for it took place thirty-six years ago and we've never gotten out of our honeymoon."

"But it isn't the minister or the church—buy the love in human hearts that makes marriage truly a sacrament."

SIX BOYS KILLED IN WRECK WHEN STEALING A RIDE

Burlington Freight Train Is Thrown Into Ditch by Breaking of Drawbar.

BUCKLIN, Mo., Oct. 9.—A Burlington freight train was wrecked half a mile east of Lingo, Macon County, Missouri, about 7 o'clock last night. Six boys, said to have been stealing a ride from New Cambria and Bevier, Mo., are reported killed.

The train, which was wrecked by the breaking of a drawbar, carried nine cars of cattle and horses. All went into the ditch.

Floyd Summers of New Cambria is known to be dead, and it is believed that there are other bodies under the wreck.

Columbus Day at "Big Tim's."

At the club house of the T. D. Sullivan Association, No. 25 Bowery, there is to be a big celebration next Thursday of Columbus Day, which Senator Sullivan induced the Legislature to make a legal holiday three years ago. Every Italian society in the city is to send delegates, and there is to be "open house" with vaudeville.

"I think divorce should be granted on at least eight grounds. Any man or woman should be able to secure a divorce for unfaithfulness, desertion, non-support, extreme cruelty, criminal offenses, drunkenness, insanity or contagious disease and incompatibility. I am strongly in favor of a national divorce law if it will embody all these causes."

"It doesn't seem to me that any one of them requires explanation, with the possible exception of the last. I use incompatibility in its strict dictionary meaning, incapable of existing together in agreement or harmony."

"Of course every marriage will have its ups and downs, some happily, some unhappily. But when these are not too frequent and the clearing up showers come quickly the general happiness is enhanced rather than injured."

"It is quite different when two persons are literally incapable of existing together in agreement or harmony. These galley slaves who in their freedom were mortal enemies and now are chained ankle to ankle lead lives of heavenly ease compared to those of the man and woman who have learned to hate each other and yet are bound by the sanctifying yoke of marriage. How can the ministers of the faith of the pulpit not condemn those wretches to a lifelong hell of suffering?"

BETTER FOR CHILDREN HOMES OF HATE BE BROKEN UP.

"That sometimes there are children whom both love as much as they hate each other."

"What sort of children will develop in an atmosphere of hate and discord?" demanded Dr. Scudder. "Their entire view of life will be distorted. They will grow up bitter, sour, little cynics, utterly devoid of the normal human sympathy which is only to be found in marriage."

"The problem of divorce is of course the problem of the children. It's a perfectly simple and practical thing when they are not in question. Even when they are the problem is not solved by keeping intact the home where it is no home. Sometimes this has to be done, but the problem is not solved. Division between the divorced parents of the financial support and companionship of the children, with their best interests always to the fore, would, in my opinion, come much nearer a solution."

"And now, why are second marriages

CRUEL TREATMENT DROVE HER TO SEEK DEATH, WIFE SAYS

Ill-Treated and Abandoned, She Threw Herself Before Car and Taxi.

Mrs. Helen A. Dexter, the pretty twenty-year-old wife of John W. Dexter, a free lance taxicab chauffeur of No. 280 Eighth avenue, told a pitiful story of desertion and brutality in the West Side Court Prison today to account for her attempt at suicide last night by throwing herself in front of trolley cars and taxicabs on Broadway near Forty-seventh street.

The young woman said she had been married to Dexter for two years and that she loved him madly. Though he had abandoned and ill-treated her, she had made an appointment with him last night, and when she met him at the corner of Forty-seventh street and Broadway and begged him to provide a home for her again, he had sworn at her and threatened to bring divorce proceedings.

"I couldn't bear any more," said the young girl, "so I rushed out into the street and threw myself in front of a car. He ran after me and dragged me off the tracks. Then I tried to throw myself under a taxicab, but he caught hold of me again. At last Policeman McGowan came along and arrested me on my husband's complaint. I don't care what happens to me now, as my only desire is to die. My life is ruined, as I cannot help loving him."

Mrs. Dexter has been living at No. 280 West One Hundred and Forty-second street, the home of her mother, Mrs. Catherine Horan. Mrs. Horan said today that she and her daughter had been living in the same place since the young woman was born, but that she would not be persuaded.

"He has always treated her cruelly," said the mother, "forcing her to starve in her fat for days and days, and finally forcing her to come to me for food and shelter."

When Dexter was asked about the charges made by his wife and mother-in-law he denied them and said his wife had left him.

10 YEARS FOR HOTEL CASHIER

Dorlon, Who Stole $52,000 in Three Years, Is Sentenced.

A sentence of not more than ten or less than five years in prison was imposed by Judge Foster in Municipal Session today on J. J. Dorlon, formerly cashier of the Manhattan Hotel, who confessed to embezzling $52,000 in the last three years.

"I am not desirous to add to your miseries," might be his long point," said Judge Foster when he fixed the sentence.

The court had been informed that in spite of the counsel of Dorlon's thefts, he had not repented, and that he was now in his possession. It was all lost in backing an automobile supply company.
